

Remembrance – A Call to Action

Repetition of Jesus

- John 13:34-35, "A new commandment I give you, that you love one another: just as I have loved you, you also are to love one another. By this all people will know that you are my disciples, if you have love for one another."
- John 15:12, "This is my commandment, that you love one another as I have loved you."
- John 15:17, "These things I command you, that you will love one another..."

Repetition of John

- 1 John 2:9, "Whoever says he is in the light and hates his brother is still in darkness."
- 3:11, "For this is the message that you have heard from the beginning, that we should love one another."
- 3:16, "By this we know love, that he laid down His life for us, and we ought to lay down our lives for the brothers."
- 3:18, "Little children, let us not love in word or talk but in deed in truth."
- 4:7, "Beloved, let us love one another, for love is from God, and whoever loves has been born of God and knows God."
- 4:11, "Beloved, if God so loved us, we also ought to love one another."
- 4:21, "And this commandment we have from Him: whoever loves God must also love his brother."
- 5:1, "Everyone who believes that Jesus is the Christ has been born of God, and everyone who loves the Father loves whoever has been born of Him."
- 5:2a, "By this we know that we love the children of God..."

“To Stir You Up By Way of Reminder”

Remind God? Is that Scriptural?

- “Remember Your word to Your servant, in which you have made me hope.” – Psalm 119:49
- “Remember me, O Lord, when you show favor to your people” – Psalm 106:4
- “Remember, O Lord, against the Edomites the day of Jerusalem, how they said, ‘Lay it bare, lay it bare, down to its foundations!’” – Psalm 137:7
- Praying that God will remember isn’t so that God will clear up a fuzzy memory, it’s a call for God to act...and so it is with our spiritual reminders...we’re being called to act!

“In remembrance of Me” (Luke 22:19; I Cor. 11:24,25)
