Jesus Curses the Fig Tree (Monday)

The cleansing of the temple.

“Matthew and Luke tell of the cleaning of the temple topically with Jesus’ triumphal entry. But, as Mark shows, it actually occurred on the next day which would be Monday (Mark 11:11-12). The cleansing of the temple was an application of Messianic authority. It took place once at the beginning of Jesus’ public ministry and now, again, at the close of His ministry.”

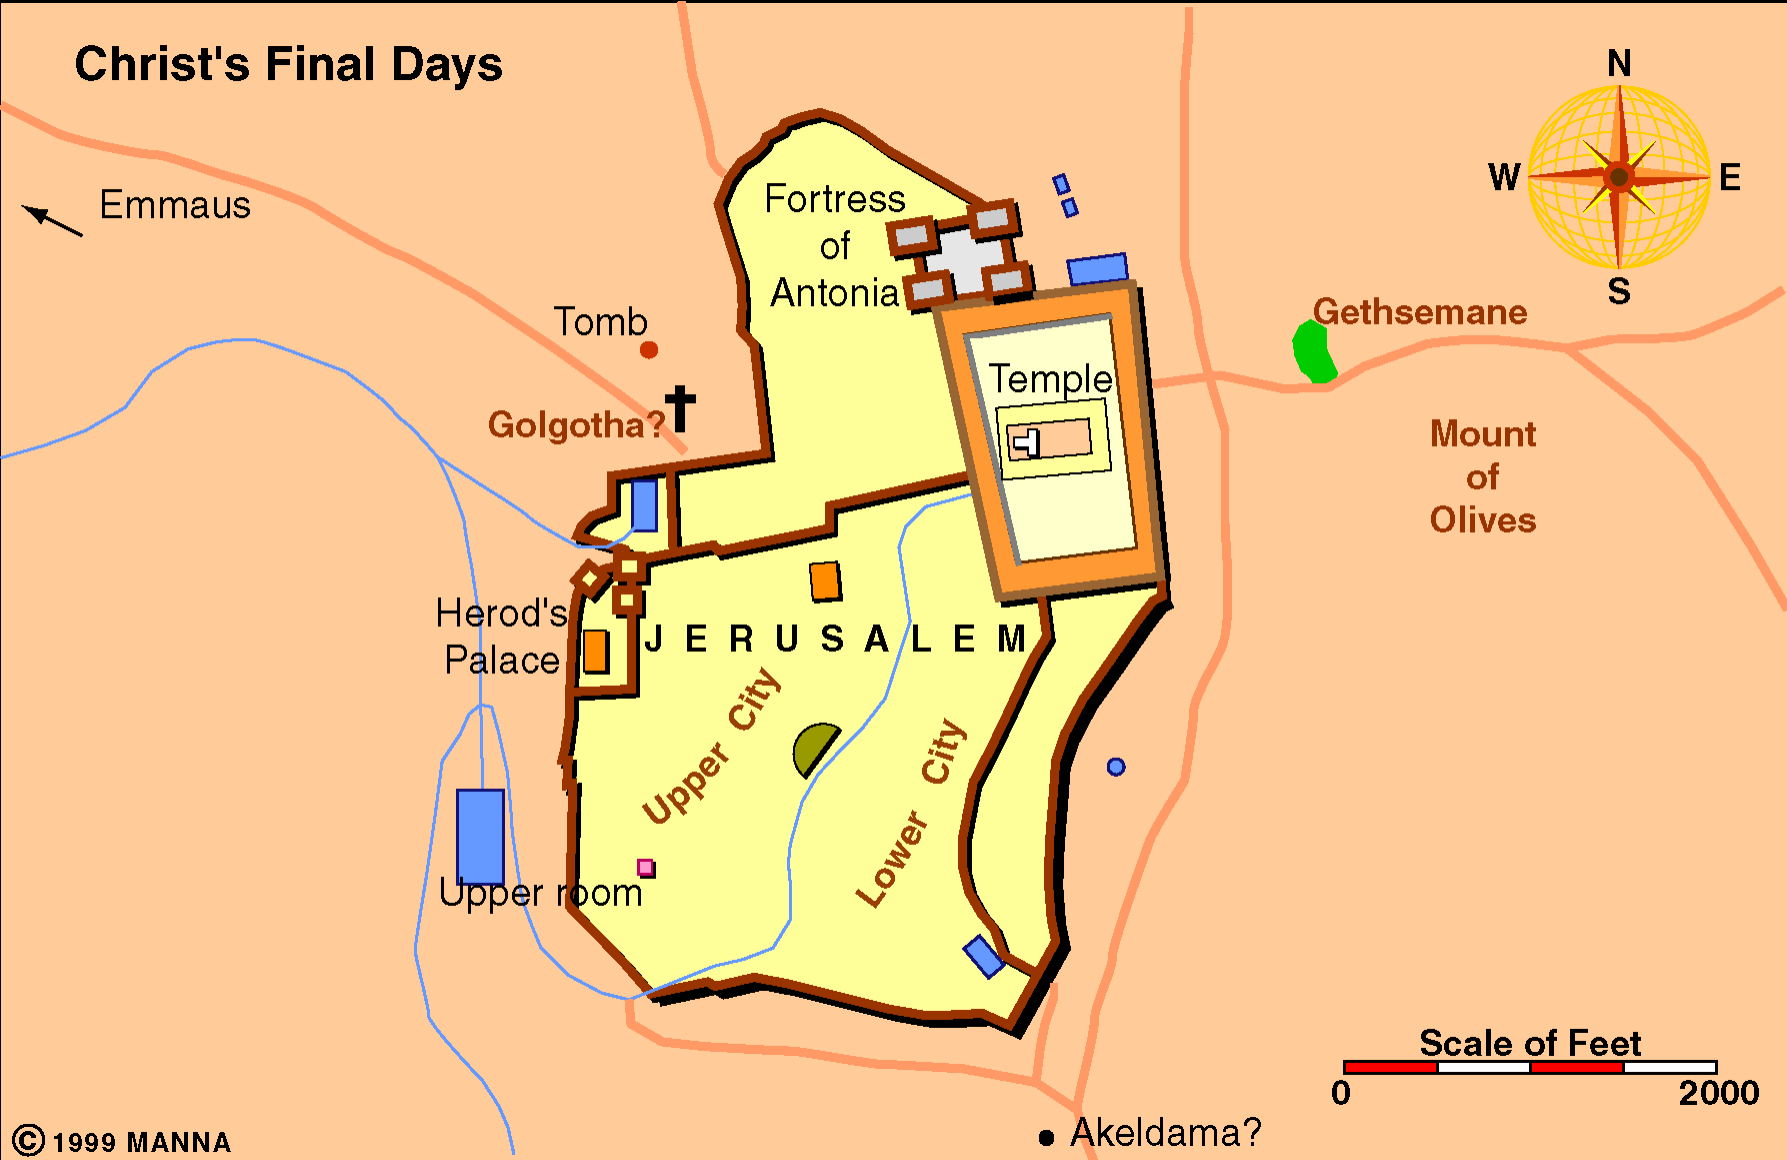

- Sir, we would see Jesus

The Cursing of the Fig Tree

The breba should have been there!

- The common fig tree produces two kinds of fruit each year: the breba and the standard fig.

The Cursing of the Fig Tree

The breba should have been there!

- The Breba always comes first (March and April). It grows when the tree is putting out its leaves (when it is not the season for figs).

The Cursing of the Fig Tree

The breba should have been there!

- It is edible but often ignored.
- When it doesn't grow, the standard figs won't either!

The Cursing of the Fig Tree

The breba should have been there!

- Since the tree had leaved out, the breba should have been there.
- Since it wasn't, that means this was a fruitless tree!

Jesus Curses the Fig Tree (Monday)

- The cursing of the fig tree.
- The cleansing of the temple.
- The judgment of God on Israel.
