THE REVELATION

- We have an enemy (Satan).

The image is a composite graphic. At the top, the word 'REVELATION' is written in large, stylized, metallic letters against a dark, stormy sky with lightning. Below the title, four horsemen are depicted in a dynamic, forward-moving pose. From left to right: a white horse with a rider holding a bow, a red horse with a rider holding a sword, a black horse with a rider holding a scythe, and a pale green horse with a rider holding a pitchfork. The horses are running on a path that appears to be a scroll or a map, with some text visible on it. The overall color palette is dark and dramatic, with blues, greys, and the colors of the horses.

- We have an enemy (Satan).
- We have an advocate (Jesus).
