Jesus' Trials and Crucifixion

Saturday

Sunday

Thursday Night

- After being arrested in the garden, Jesus was taken first before Annas.
- Jesus was then taken before Caiphas.
- Two disciples were following Jesus to see what the outcome of the trial would be.
- Both trials were illegal.
- False witnesses were brought forward to testify.
- Jesus was eventually convicted of blasphemy by the Sanhedrin.

The Last Week of Christ

Thursday Night

- The leaders agreed that Jesus deserved to die.
- After the conviction, Jesus was mocked, spit on, and beaten by the crowd.
- Jesus will have three more “trial” appearances.
- The Sanhedrin couldn't officially sentence Jesus to death.
- During His appearance before Caiphas, Peter denied Jesus three times before a rooster crowed twice.

What happened with Judas?

- He gave the money back.
- The leaders used the money to purchase a field to bury strangers (Field of Blood).
- Judas committed suicide.
- Judas' body would later burst open in this field.

Scourging

- A whip with a handle and metal lashes was used.
- The victim's flesh was often torn (revealing internal organs).
- Many would die from these beatings.
- This is probably why Jesus couldn't carry His cross to Golgotha.

Other Observations

- Since He wasn't the Messiah they wanted, the religious leaders charged Jesus with the very thing they had been waiting for!
- Jesus experienced ill treatment and humiliation by the hands of Roman soldiers.
- The Jews took responsibility for killing Jesus.
- Simon was forced to carry Jesus' cross.
