

The Miracles of Jesus

A close-up photograph of a person's feet wearing brown, multi-strap sandals, standing in shallow, rippling water. The person is wearing a light-colored, possibly white, skirt or dress. The water is clear and reflects the light, creating a shimmering effect. The overall scene is bright and serene.

The Coin Inside the Fish (Matthew 17:24-27)

- Peter's impulsiveness is seen again here.
- This was a religious tax.
- Since Jesus was the Son of the King of the house, He was exempt from paying the tax.
- He paid it anyway not to offend those who paid.

The Coin Inside the Fish (Matthew 17:24-27)

Two miracles are on display here:

- The coin in the fish's mouth.
- Jesus already knowing about Peter's conversation.

What the miracles have in common:

- The miraculous insight of the Lord is revealed.
- The disciples fished all night long and caught nothing!
- After obeying Jesus, they caught an enormous amount!

What the miracles don't have in common:

- There was a difference in time.
- There was difference in the size of the catch.
- There was a difference in when the disciples knew it was Jesus who was speaking to them.
