

Jude

a servant of Jesus Christ and a brother of James,
to those who have been called, who are kept by God the Father and kept by Jesus Christ, peace and love be yours in abundance.

and Disciples of Covetous Men
I have written to you, although I was very sorrowful, because I had to write to you about the lawlessness of those who have turned away from the grace of God. They are denying the Lord who bought them, and they are bringing dishonor to the name of the Lord Jesus Christ. They are denying the Lord who bought them, and they are bringing dishonor to the name of the Lord Jesus Christ. They are denying the Lord who bought them, and they are bringing dishonor to the name of the Lord Jesus Christ.

¹²These feasts, eating and drinking, and reveling, and such things, do not bring glory to God, but rather bring shame and upbraidings. These things are the fruit of the selfishness of your hearts. They are the fruit of the selfishness of your hearts. They are the fruit of the selfishness of your hearts.

Jude's Warning

“Beloved, while I was making every effort to write you about our common salvation, I felt the necessity to write to you appealing that you contend earnestly for the faith which was once for all handed down to the saints.”

- Jude 3

How do we contend for the faith?

How do we contend for the faith?

- Know it (2 Peter 1:5).
