

THANKFUL

THANKFUL

- Thankful For Discipline – Prov. 12:1, Heb. 12:7-11; Obviously, nobody considers discipline joyful at the time, but some of our greatest qualities can only be refined by it.
- Thankful For My Gray Hair – In general, the aging process should be seen as a benefit rather than a curse. My gray hairs represent my growth, maturity, and spiritual journey to the afterlife. Prov. 20:29, 16:31.

THANKFUL

- Thankful For Criticism – Prov. 15:22, 11:14; What good would I be at anything without correction? It is certainly not pleasant, but even ‘nagging’ has a point.
- Thankful For My Enemies – Matt. 5:44ff; Being thankful for friends is easy, but it is our enemies that help reveal our true character. Matt. 6:14-15, Romans 12:17ff.
