

A close-up photograph of two gold wedding rings interlocking. The rings are positioned diagonally across the frame, with one ring in the foreground and another slightly behind it. The lighting is soft, highlighting the metallic texture and the circular forms of the rings. The background is a plain, light color, making the rings stand out.

When Marriage Is Adultery

Matthew 19:3-9

³ And Pharisees came up to him and tested him by asking, "Is it lawful to divorce one's wife for any cause?" ⁴ He answered, "Have you not read that he who created them from the beginning made them male and female, ⁵ and said, 'Therefore a man shall leave his father and his mother and hold fast to his wife, and the two shall become one flesh'? ⁶ So they are no longer two but one flesh. What therefore God has joined together, let not man separate." ⁷ They said to him, "Why then did Moses command one to give a certificate of divorce and to send her away?" ⁸ He said to them, "Because of your hardness of heart Moses allowed you to divorce your wives, but from the beginning it was not so. ⁹ And I say to you: whoever divorces his wife, except for sexual immorality, and marries another, commits adultery."

Adultery isn't a state of being, but an action. There's no such thing as "living in adultery."

A blurred background image of a golden ring, likely a wedding band, with a diamond set in a channel. The ring is out of focus, creating a bokeh effect with soft, circular highlights.

An unscriptural divorce and remarriage is like stealing an apple and eating it. I can't give it back to you. It's permanent.

A close-up, shallow depth-of-field photograph of two interlocking wedding rings. The rings are made of a polished, golden-brown metal, likely rose gold. They are positioned in the center of the frame, with one ring slightly behind and to the right of the other, creating a sense of depth. The background is a soft, out-of-focus white surface. A semi-transparent white rectangular box with a thin black border is overlaid on the center of the image, containing the text.

How can one commit adultery by being married? Every marriage is valid.

So what are you suggesting?

How does one divorce solve another?

How can any good be done by tearing families apart?