

A landscape photograph capturing a sunset over a wide, winding river. The sun is low on the horizon, casting a warm, golden glow across the sky and reflecting off the water. The river meanders through a valley, with its banks and the surrounding land appearing in deep shadow. In the background, a range of mountains is silhouetted against the bright sky. The overall mood is serene and contemplative. A white text box with a thin black border is positioned in the lower half of the image, containing the text "YESTERDAY, TODAY, AND FOREVER" in a bold, white, sans-serif font.

YESTERDAY, TODAY, AND FOREVER

WE WANTED THEM SMALLER.

UNTIL THEY COULD SHOW SELFIES.
THEN WE WANTED THEM BIGGER AGAIN.

JESUS CHRIST IS THE SAME

- Hebrews 13:8 states, "Jesus Christ is the same yesterday and today and forever." The author may have written this to remind second generation Christians of the authority, power, and perfection of their leader.
- Jesus is with His disciples, "even to the end of the age" (Matthew 28:20).
- This quality is called immutability. This does not mean Jesus is literally "changeless", but it does mean His essence, His divine attributes, His moral perfection cannot change.

I, THE LORD, DO NOT CHANGE

- "God is not a man, that He should lie; neither the son of man, that He should repent" (Numbers 23:19).
- "Even they will perish, but You endure... But You are the same" (Psalm 102:26-27).
- "For I, the Lord, do not change" (Malachi 3:6).
- "Hence, also, He is able to save forever those who draw near to God through Him, since He always lives to make intercession for them" (Hebrews 7:25).
