

An open book with a dark cover and gold-leafed edges lies on a dark, textured wooden surface. The pages are filled with small, dense text, likely a religious or philosophical work. A black bookmark is visible on the right page. Overlaid on the center of the open book is the text "WHY DO YOU DO WHAT YOU DO?" in a large, bold, black, sans-serif font. The background is a warm, golden-brown light that fades into the wooden surface.

WHY DO YOU DO
WHAT YOU DO?

An open book with text overlaid. The book is open, showing two pages of text. The text is in a serif font, likely from a religious or historical text. The book is resting on a dark, textured wooden surface. The lighting is warm, creating a soft glow around the book. The text "AUTHORITY IN TRADITION" is overlaid in large, bold, black capital letters across the center of the open pages.

AUTHORITY IN TRADITION

An open book with a dark cover and a black bookmark is lying flat on a dark, textured wooden surface. The pages are white with faint, illegible text. The lighting is warm and soft, creating a gentle glow around the book. The text is centered over the open pages.

AUTHORITY IN “READING BETWEEN THE LINES”

AUTHORITY IN SELF

An open book with a dark cover and gold-leaf edges lies on a dark, textured wooden surface. A black bookmark is placed in the right-hand page. The pages are filled with dense, small text, likely a Bible. Overlaid on the center of the open book is the text 'AUTHORITY IN SELF' in a large, bold, black, sans-serif font. The background is a warm, golden-brown wooden surface with a prominent grain pattern.

THE FINAL AUTHORITY

1. God gave us the Bible
2. He intends for us to use it
3. How we use it is important to Him
4. The Bible is written in a way we can understand it
5. Since it can be understood, we should pursue it
6. Those who fail to pursue can be easily misled
7. False doctrine is not acceptable to God
8. Following the word is the only way to avoid penalty
9. Obedience is not burdensome
10. The responsibility is now on your shoulders