

THE ROARING LION

Even though it's the question everybody wants answered, we must learn to act upon what we do know about him, rather than what we do not.

Do you care about the life story of a home invader? Do you care how he got there, or what is motivating him? In the fight for your family's safety, only one thing really matters: how to escape the danger

WHERE DID SATAN COME FROM?

“Be of sober spirit, be on the alert. Your adversary, the devil, prowls about like a roaring lion, seeking someone to devour” (1 Peter 5:8).

THE DEVIL'S “PERSONAL TOUCH”

- Everybody's weakness is different. Some are mauled by upheaval in their personal lives while others are simply lulled into a false sense of security.
- Satan certainly takes a "whatever works" approach, since the end result is the same, no matter "how" it gets done. The parable of the sower illustrates this (Matt. 13:18ff).
