

A CITIZEN OF ZION

"O Lord, who may abide in Thy tent? Who may dwell on Thy holy hill? He who walks with integrity, and works righteousness, and speaks truth in his heart. He does not slander with his tongue, nor does evil to his neighbor, nor takes up a reproach against his friend; in whose eyes a reprobate is despised, but who honors those who fear the Lord; he swears to his own hurt, and does not change; he does not put out his money at interest, nor does he take a bribe against the innocent. He who does these things will never be shaken."

PSALM 15

A CITIZEN OF ZION...

- “Walks, works, and speaks” – This indicates the entire person, both inside and out, is devoted to God.
- Despises reprobates – We must stop feeling sorry for the villains of the world and start acknowledging how they negatively impact everybody around them.
- Honors the right people – Comic book characters and athletes are not heroes.
- Practices boundless charity – It is not an afterthought, a bore, or a chore. Kindness is an inseparable part of the citizen’s character.

"And they were continually devoting themselves to the apostles' teaching and to fellowship, to the breaking of bread and to prayer. And everyone kept feeling a sense of awe; and many wonders and signs were taking place through the apostles. And all those who had believed were together, and had all things in common; and they were selling their property and possessions, and were sharing them with all, as anyone might have need. And day by day continuing with one mind in the temple, and breaking bread from house to house, they were taking their meals together with gladness and sincerity of heart, praising God, and having favor with all the people. And the Lord was adding to their number daily those who were being saved"
